Regulations

1. The total credits required for graduation are 30 credits (comprising 3 required credits, 21 elective credits, and 6 thesis credits).

2. Credits per semester: First-year students may register for 6–16 credits in their first semester; all other semesters allow 3–16 credits.

3. Students must either complete the academic ethics course offered by the Taiwan Academic Ethics Education Resources Center and obtain a certificate of completion, or attend at least 6 hours of academic ethics-related workshops and obtain a certificate of participation. When applying for the master's thesis oral examination, students must submit one of the aforementioned certificates; only upon review and approval may the application for the oral examination proceed.

4. Other Courses: Courses that have been reviewed and approved by the Department's Curriculum Committee.

5. Graduate students, based on their research needs, may take up to 9 credits of courses related to their professional field in other departments or graduate institutes within the university, or up to 3 credits at graduate institutes of other universities. These credits may be recognized toward graduation requirements, with a maximum limit of 9 credits in total.
